IMPORTANT CONSUMER NOTICE – PLEASE READ

A 'mortgage' is financing secured against your property. 'Secured' means that if you do not maintain the payments, the financier can sell your property to get its money back. Remember: You may lose your property if you do not maintain your payments on your mortgage. We recommend you obtain independent legal and financial advice regarding this document.

CONSUMER WARNINGS

- If the financing sought is predominately for personal, domestic, household use or residential investment (i.e. not predominately for business or investment purposes) then under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 La Trobe Financial has an obligation, amongst others, to make reasonable enquiry of you at the time of the proposed finance contract to ascertain whether you could not pay the financing in accordance with its terms or not without substantial hardship and that the financing meets your objectives and requirements. Your declarations herein will be evidence of La Trobe Financial's enquiry of you.
- You are applying for finance and La Trobe Financial is relying on the declarations that you have made above to assist in making its finance decision. Please make sure that the declarations are correct. Obtaining finance by deception, fraud or dishonesty (which includes knowingly making false statements as to income) are crimes and offenders may be prosecuted.
- A default of payment obligations under this proposed finance contract may result in legal action for recovery of the amount owed, which may result in the loss of your property (the security property) and impact your credit history affecting your ability to obtain finance in the future. You must carefully consider the proposed commitment, together with your other financial obligations (including living expenses) before committing to the financing.
- Your financing will be secured by a 'mortgage' against your property. 'Secured' means that if you do not maintain your payments, the financier can sell your property to get its money back. Remember: You may lose your property if you do not maintain your payments on your mortgage.
- We recommend that you obtain independent legal and financial advice regarding this document and the proposed finance contract.
- Do not sign this document if there is anything you do not understand.
